TWO MILLIONS IN DEBT. ANALYZING MRS. STEWART'S ACCOUNTS.

NO TRUTH IN THE RUMOR THAT THE SUIT WILL RE SETTLED OUT OF COURT-THE MANY COLUMNS OF FIGURES MAKE SURROGATE RANSOM'S HEAD ACHE

-A TILT BETWEEN COUNSEL The remarkable results of the analysis of Mrs. Stewart's accounts, as kept by ex-Judge Henry Hilton, were further supplemented yesterday before Surrogate The stories brought out from a mass of most Ranson. The stories brought out from a mass of most prosale figures by the expert accountant, Mercer, have all the qualities of sensationalism, and suggest to the mind of the layman a startling series of paradoxical thoughts. The expert testimony, all the way through, goes to show that Mrs. Stewart, the helress of milling forested in the most verificials. of millions invested in the most profitable way, was in debt from the time of her husband's death, and kept on becoming more and more involved as the years rolled on. At the time of her death, the "C. M. S." accounts go to show, Mrs. Stewart was over $2,000,000 in debt, and there are few people in the world who have succeeded in straining their credit to any such extent.

Mr. Mercer produced a table, in his testimony, which shows the fluctuations of Mrs. Stewart's indebtedness to Judge Hilton. It starts with $9,000, grows to an enormous sum, drops down on account of the sale of some of A. T. Stewart's realty, and then rosumes its vitality, and gradually attains large dimensions. This interesting table is as follows:

The examination then took this turn: Mr. Cleveland-What caused the sudden drop in February, 1884?

The witness—On the 29th day of that month Mrs.

Stewart was credited with $2,100,000 as the proceeds of the sale of the Stewart Building. The indebtedness at once began to grow again, as the table shows.

Mr. Hilton, however, had interest charges against her income account to the amount of $1,078,708 12. That made a total debit on Mrs. Stewart's account of $0,091,831 41. At the time of her death, therefore, Mrs. Stewart's income account showed a deficit to her debit of $11,205 63. LAWYERS READY FOR THE FRAY.

Yesterday morning, when the celebrated case was again taken up in the Surrogate's Court, the lawyers on both sides were all present and ready for the fray. Judge Hilton, as usual, sat with his counsel. Daniel G. Rellins took matters quietly, while ex Attorney-General Russell made himself as comfortable as possible. Mr. Root was the only one who was really active on the side of the proponent, while Mr. Cleveland conducted the examination for the contest-ants. Joseph H. Choate divided his time and conversation equally between the table of the complaint and that of the defence. When Surrogate Ransom had taken his seat, Mr. Cleveland said:

Mr. Mercer, I have here the original lease of the property bounded by Ninth and Tenth sts., Fourth-ave. and Broadway, from the Sailor's Snug Harbor to A. T. Stewart. It is dated May 1, 1869, and holds for twenty-one years. What do you find is the rent reserved in this lease? The witness-It is $12,000 per annum for the first Counsel for contestants next placed in evidence a voucher for a bill of H. L. Herbert & Co., for coal stowed in the cellar of the property at Readest, and Broadway, April 3, 1884. The bill is for $870.75, and on it was indorsed "Charge estate $486, H. $384 75" in a handwriting which Mr. Mercer could not identify. From "C. M. S." receipt book No. 2, two bills of Mitchell, Vance & Co., one June 21, 1884, for $3,000, and one July 11, 1884, for $1,600, for gas fixtures in the Stewart Building, were placed in evidence. Though the Stewart Building was sold on Mrs. Stewart's account in February of that year, both bills were charged to "C. M. S." account, and were hald by Mrs. Stewart "per Henry Hilton." DENYING THE RUMOR OF A SETTLEMENT. Mr. Mercer concluded his testimony for the day with the reading of a statement, giving all the credity placed to Henry Hilton's account in Special Journal "L," after April 10, 1876. The object of this was to show how the interest in the business left by A. T. Stewart had grown after Judge Hilton gained pos-The credit charges to Mr. Hilton's account included primarily the $8,170,192 70, the dance credit of A. T. Siewart placed to the account of Henry Hilton, as cash, on April 10, 1876. They also included the share of Henry Hilton, 80 per cent of the profit and loss account, given from time to time, which always happened, however, to be profit.

time, which always happened, however, to be profit.

In addition to these items there were placed to the credit of Mr. Hilton, at frequent intervals, the premiums on insurance, marine risks, which Mr. Hilton took in preference to insuring in an insurance company. That is, he took the rism of loss for the firm on himself, and credited his account with the premiums. Similarly he guaranteed doubtful accounts, and in case of collection was credited with a guarantee commission. Finally, the credits include the interest on loans which Mr. Hilton made to the firm at various times. The sum total of all these varieties of credits, from April 10, 1876, to June 20, 1885, this being a net total, was $14.347.526.06. The capital left in the business by Mr. Stewart, $8,170,192.70, being subtracted, leaves as the carning power of the Stewart interest, during that period, $6,177,333.36, the sum which Judge Hilton is claimed to have profited by the Stewart business interest alone. These figures do not include the amount credited to Mr. Libby. All this testimony was given in detail by Mr. Mercer.

At 1 o'clock Surrogate Ransom, accustomed as he is to histening to cadless rows of figures, was compelled to adjourn the session on account of a severe head-ache. The hearing will be continued on Monday at 10:30 a.m. A rumor was current yesterday afternoon to the effect that negotiations were pending looking toward a settlement of the suit. Counsel on both sides denied the story emphatically.

"I can assure you," said ex-Judge Russell, "that everything looks like a fight to the death."

CONSECRATING A BEAUTIFUL CHAPEL.

A COSTLY AND ATTRACTIVE GIFT TO THE GEN-FRAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The new Memorial Chapel of the Good Shepherd in the grounds of the General Theological Seminary was consecrated yesterday. One of the largest assemblies of the Protestant Episcopal clergy of the city which has ever assisted in such a ceremony participated. The chapel has been built under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Hoffman, dean of the seminary, for his mother, who died last February. It was intended by her as a memorial to her husband, Samuel Verplanck Hoffman, who died in 1880.

The services were conducted by Bishop Williams, of Connecticut, the senior bishop of the Episcopal Church, assisted by Bishops Huntington, of Central New-York; Scarborough, of New-Jersey; Seymour, of Illinois; Whitehead, of Pittsburg; Walker, of Dakota; Brewer, of Montana; Quintard, of Tennessee, and Henry C. Potter, of New-York. The Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix preached the sermon, in which he paid a high tribute to Samuel Verplanck Hoffman and Mrs. Hoff-The chapel was filled with the clergy and the alumni of the seminary from the city and different parts of the country. The faculty and all the clergy participating were surplices. The students of the seminary conducted the singing.

Among those present were President G. W. Smith, of Trinity College; the Rev. Drs. Cornelius R. Duffie, Henry Y. Satterlee, Thomas Gallaudet, Newland Maynard, Archdeacons Van Kleeck and Carey, Cornellus Vanderbilt, Mrs. C. C. Haight, the family of Dean Hoffman, Professors Richey, Hall, Scabury and Eigen-

The chapel occupies a site on the north side of the grounds overlooking Twenty-first-st. Its entrance is grounds overlooming Twenty-first-st. Its entrance is from the grounds. The structure is of brick with a large square tower, and will be connected on either side by the dormitories of the institution. The in-terior walls are of red and light yellow brick, and terior walls are of red and light yellow brick, and the ceiling of panelled oak. The chapel has about 100 seats for visitors and the remainder of the auditorium will be reserved for the students. The floor is a mosaic, composed of colored marbles. A fine organ was built for the chapel by Roocevelt, and the altar, of English alabaster, is twenty feet wide and sixteen feet high. It is elaborately carved and is said to be one of the finest in the country. The windows present a series of pictures from the Old and New Testaments. Yesterday the altar was decorated with roses and chrysanthemums, ferns and palms. The cost of the chapel is placed at $115,000.

TROUBLES OF BUSINESS MEN. Linde & Lawrence, manufacturers of refrigerating nachines at Varies and Beach sts., are asking an extension of time of their creditors and propose giving them collateral security for their claims. Nearly all the creditors have readily granted the extension and the remaining ones are expected to give their consent in a few days. The liabilities of the firm are only $45,000, while the assets are large, but are all tied up and cannot be made immediately available. The firm is composed of Charles F. Linde and Richard B. Lawrence, who succeeded Linde & Smith on July 7, 1885. Mr. Linde is the capitalist of the firm. He has been long and favorably known in business circles in this and other cities. For many cears he was a partner in the firm of F. C. Linde & Co., bankers and warehousemen, and F. C. Linde, Hamilton & Co., storage and tobacco inspection, but withdrew from these firms last January. He was also senior partner in the firm of C. F. Linde & Co. manufacturers of brooms, who dissolved in February last. Mr. Linde's fortune has been absorbed in the artificial ice business. Two judgments aggregating about $2,100 have been entered against the firm, but arrangements, it is said, are being made to satisfy Segall & Flatow, manufacturers of neckwear at No. 406 Broadway, and No. 40 East Broadway are offering to compromise with their creditors at twenty-five cents on the dollar; half cash and half in notes. The liabilities are $7,100 and assets $4.000 in stock and accounts.

MR. CHURCH FAVORS THE QUAKER BRIDGE DAM. There was a full meeting of the Aqueduct Commis sion yesterday. Chief Engineer Church made two reports, which had been called for regarding the new Aqueduct. They were ordered upon the minutes without reading. Mr. Church fixes the probable date tions with the old Aqueduct mains in Tenth-ave., near One-hundred-and-thirty-fifth-st., at July 1, 1889, and to the Central Park Reservoir at December 31. For the maximum supply he gives the approximate figure of 31s,000,000 gallons. In 1890 Mr. Church estimates that the city will have a population of 1,665,875. According to the tables of statistics which the Chief Engineer presents, he demonstrates that the consumption will exhaust the storage of that year and the daily supply will be short 79,000,000 The cost of the Quaker Bridge Dam Mr. Church estimates at $0,700,000. He says it will take five years to build it and that it may be finished in 1894 if the construction is begun in the spring of 1829. Mr. Church's second report is devoted to show-ing that the conclusions of Engineer McLean, of the Finance Lepartment, in opposition to the building of the Quaker Bridge Dam are erroneous.

DOES C. P. HUNTINGTON OWN "THE STAR?" the "right, title and interest" of the mortgaged and expiring "Star" on Tuesday for $700, had not returned to take possession of his prize late yesterday. At stated in The Tribune yesterday, however, there is little doubt about "The Star" having been bought by C. P. Huntington. The down-town office of Mr. Huntington is Room No. 6 on the seventh floor of the Milis Building. Rooms Nos. 4 and 5 are the offices of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley Railway, the new name for the old Chesapeake and Ohio, Mr. Huntington's road, and they open into Mr. The mysterious Mr. Downs is employed behind a desk in Room No. 4. Mr. Huntington was not in yesterday when a Tribune reporter

At "The Star" office in Broadway, the reporte learned that the employes were all expecting a big change on the paper after the election. It was also stated that the sale to Mr. Downs was a masterly step by which small debts, not of record, amounting to nearly $100,000, would be disposed of.

A BAKER RUINED BY POLICY.

The police have been asked to arrest David Willtams, a baker in the employ of Morris London, at No. 12 Bayard-st. Bread is sent from the bakery to a number of small groceries in the city, and Lonion has sometimes sent Williams out to collect money from the customers. In January Williams put son of the money in his own pocket and fled to Chicago London took him back. Williams had a passion for policy playing, and that soon led him to sical again. On Saturday he disappeared, and it was ascertained that he had collected $150 from London's sustainers before he went away. Mrs. Williams and her sick child are left destitude.

SKILFUL AND BEAUTIFUL PENMANSHIP. The excellence of the work performed by Daniel T. Ames & Son, artist penmen, of No. 205 Broadway, is well known. A particularly beautiful piece of work executed by Mr. Ames is a memorial to General Grant. In it is shown a fine picture of the great Seneral, the White House, a charging battalion of oldiers, and other views and symbols illustrative of ieneral Grant's life in peace and war. Excellent lithographic copies of the sketch, 22 by 1s inches, may be purchased at 50 cents per copy, and copies will be mailed free to subscribers to "The Penman's Art Journal."

THE IRISH ATHLETES SAIL FOR HOME.

The majority of the members of the Gaelic Athletic team salled yesterday for Ireland by the City of Rome. Dr. J. C. Daly, one of those who remained, says that he has become so interested in the progress of the Presidential campaign, and the whole affair has been so entirely novel and attractive, that he is anxious to "see it out," and will remain over until after election day.

A LONG SENTENCE FOR A LAD. Harry Rodgers, age sixteen, who has been under in-dictment for several months for murder in the first de-gree, pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Gildersleeve to a charge of mansiaughter in the first degree. District Attorney Fellows had hesitated to accept the plea, as b onsidered Rodgers guilty of murder in the second degree convict of a crime higher than manslaughter in the first degree. He said that in accepting the plea he had shown all possible elemency, and he accordingly sentenced Rodgers to the longest possible sentence under the plea. NOT A SINGLE SHIP AVAILABLE.

ALL THE NAVY LEFT AT HOME LAID UP FOR CAMPAIGN PURPOSES.

What's the matter with the United States Navy Why, it isn't all right! It's being repaired. The pubmust not expect too much at these times. What there are a few whaling vessels in peril in the neighborhood of the Behring Straits. They may be in a critical situation; so, too, is the Democratic Administration. It is crying for votes; and in order ! get them that section of the statutes which provides that there shall not be an increase of force at the Navy Yards within sixty days preceding a general lection has been suspended, and nearly the Navy is being repaired by the thousands of extra mechanics and laborers. The whalers must wait until the Pacific Squadron is available for such ser

That squadron has ten vessels, any one or more of which might be sheathed on the bows and protected in other ways to go with relief to the whalers in a ew days' time. The Nipsic and Adams are at Samoa; the Alert is at Honolulu; the tug Pinta is up in Alaska; the Thetis is at Sitka, all out of reach of telegraphic communication. The Trenton is at Callao; the Delphin at San Francisco under repairs. and the Hartford, Vandalia, Iroqueis and Mohican all at Mare Island undergoing repairs. The North At-lantic Squadron is even less available than the Pacific Squadron, as every vessel is at the New-York or the Norfolk Navy Yards under repairs, and there is not one ready to be sent to Hayti to protect Ameriis not one ready to be sent to Hayti to protect American interests there. The Atlanta, Galena and Yantic are at the New-York Navy Yard; the Ossipee and Pensacola are at the Norfolk Navy Yard, and the Kearsarge is at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and the Kearsarge is at the Portsmouth Navy Yard. The latter has been ordered to proceed to Hayti as soon as possible after she is put in commission, which will be in a couple of weeks.

A cablegram from Port-au-Prince, received last evening, announces the capture by the Haytien man-of-war Toussaint L'Overture, off Cape Haytien, of the British schooner Alta, which left New-York about October 19 with a heavy cargo of arms and ammunition. The Alta cleared for Antwerp.

DEATH OF THE REV. DR. W. C. VAN METER. The Rev. Dr. William C. Van Meter, age sixty-eight, well-known evangelist and missionary, died resterday at Rome, Italy, where he v engaged in his work. He spent last fall and winter in New-York, and returned with The Rev. Dr. Armitage said inst night that he met Dr. Van Meter in London last summer and that he was then in good health. Dr. Van Meter was one of the organizers of the work of the Howard Mission about forty years ago in New York. It was established for the purpose of caring for poor city children and procuring them homes in the country. This project rise with a great many obstructions at first, but the Do-tor antaring energy as its superintendent, directed it successfully for twenty-five year He then went to Italy and started in Rome a mission school for children, which he conducted under great dif-ficulties until Victor Emanuel's entry into Rome. Having then secured the protection of the Government he was no longer molested. He secured for his headquarters an old building once used by the Inquisition for torturing of building once used by the Industrian in observable. Christians, and there he set up a printing press and printed the first copies of the New Testament in Italian. Of recent years he has been doing evangelistic work and has been largely energed in the distribution of Bibles through Italy and Europe. His affiliations in New-York were largely with the Baptist Church, but he was equally well-known and respected in other denominations. Learned His Lesson.—Father—Hello! Where did you t all those toys?

get all those toys?

Son—I bought 'em with the money you gave me.

"But I gave you that money to learn how to save."

"Yes. pa. I kept it for three weeks until I learned all about saving, and now I'm learning how to shop."—

TRUE MERIT ENDURES.
The thousands of testimonia-s received by the propriets of Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator warrant them in recommending it to the public as a reliable vegetable remedy in all abnormal conditions of the liver and the evils that result from it, such as constipation, dyspepsia, laund 'e, billiousness, malaria, rhumatism. It is an established fact that more diseases result from an unhealthy liver than from any other cause.

REPUBLICANS!

DO NOT MISS ONE COPY

THE TRIBUNE DURING THE CURRENT WEEK!

The daily sale of THE TRIBUNE grows come tinually; and it exceeds even the remarkable sale of the Blaine campaign.

Owing to the large number of new buyers and readers, scarcely a day passes without a number of customers finding the newsdealers and newsboys on the trains "all sold out." Every Republican should make sure of his daily copy of THE TRIBUNE during this, the last week of the campaign. With its extensive facilities for collecting the news and investigating the truth of every campaign slander, THE TRIBUNE is a safeguard to the party, and should be in the hands of every Republican in these three cities and in the three neighboring States. The only sure way is to have the newsdealer nearest you serve the paper
